It may be that there are those 'close in Mr. Dole's confidence who know whether he intends to resign and there may be men in the President's confidence who know whether he will call for the Governor's resignation if he does not resign. The people may depend upon it, however, that the President will not allow any underground methods either in connection with the Governor's resignation or the appointment of his successor. There will be no secrecy about the resignation of the Governor or any other officer. As soon as the resignation is a feet and a vacance yetist, the political made public. There was much excitement in the vicinity of the McCully tract on King street between ' and 8 n clock last night and the firing of shots from revolvers attracted quite a crowd to the house of a Portuguese, J. Tavas by name. When the excitement caused by the shots and the yelling of the Portuguese of the neighborhood had somewhat subsided, it was found that the wife of the Portuguese named had been shot by Tavas, whether by acci-dent or by design remains to be seen. The story of the affair, as told by the younger Tavas, a tramcar driver, is as
